

Look for this symbol
on the map:

(perfect for energetic explorers!)

EXPLORER TRAIL

JQ
JEWELLERY QUARTER CEMETERIES PROJECT

Explore Key Hill Cemetery and try to find these amazing places...

Charles Vince

This rather impressive grave stone is for Charles Vince a Baptist minister which explains his ecclesiastical (church-like) grave marker!

found it! ☐

Memorial Bench

This beautiful bench features poppies and doves alongside the words "Lest we Forget". Sitting here gives a stunning view of the cemetery.

found it! ☐

The Metro Wall

In 1995 the cemetery gave some land over to the Metro to make way for the tram system. The moved graves are now listed on the metro wall.

found it! ☐

Bird Boxes

The cemetery is home to lots of wildlife in the heart of the Jewellery Quarter. How many bird boxes can you spot in the cemetery?

found it! ☐

The Serpent (Ouroboros)

You can find this on the gates, showing a serpent devouring its own tail. An ancient symbol originating in Egypt that is usually used to depict the cycle of life, death and rebirth.

found it! ☐

Victorian Urinal

This Victorian Urinal or 'Temple of relief' would have been very useful for gentlemen visiting the cemetery or the pub next door. At this time there were no public toilets for women!

found it! ☐